BROOKLYN OFFICE

To Doug C. Palmer, Clerk of Court et al,

Under 18 U.S.C.S. § 1001, as a reminder, it says any judicial branch employee that knowingly and intentionally attempts to cover up and conceal a material fact And that material fact is personal jurisdiction over me, McArthur Jean, and the subject matter jurisdiction of your court in case number "DNYE117CR&&Q372 would be delivered in violation of the reference code above and Rule 9(b) fraud especially material and negligent misrepresentation. Therefore, when I asked you for discovery to prove this court and government had under Rule 4(c)(1) personal jurisdiction over me, Mc-Arthur Jean, that would be contained in administrative record known as discovery that would have had to be filed in advance by the office of the clerk and given to the U.S. Marshal's Office in the form of a summons to be delivered to myself or the complaint sent by certified mail. Therefore, Mr. Palmer, Clerk of Court et al, surely you do not wish to be in violation of 18 U.S.C.S. § 1001 where one is subject of a fine and up to 5 yrs in prison for falsifying a federal document as you have not placed a date on your official court letter but rather on the envelope of July 22, 2020. Moreover, as an upstanding court, lawful and just, it would be certainly out of character. Hence, I'm asking you under the Privacy Act Section 552 a(e)(5) to provide me proof because we both know, without it, this court and government would be in violation of Rule 4(c)(1), meaning the court did not have subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate the case. For this reason, I'm forced to invoke subject matter jurisdiction. In addition, I'm asking this court under Rule 56(e) to grant me summary judgement, the government having failed to produce a genuine material dispute against my factual assertion. I wait your prompt response.

Respectfully Submitted,

McArthur Jean (Docket # CR17-372 (JS))
